

Public Sector in Transition or Saved?

Thinking Beyond COVID-19 AND Federal Relief Packages

IPPS March Meeting to Feature Dr. Robert Eyler, Experienced Economist Focused on Regional Economic Development and Analysis Specializing in Public Policy Analysis for Government

- Quick forecast and overview of national and state economies;
- Overview of North State economy and specific challenges and opportunities;
- The Public Sector: transition or empowered for 2021 to 2025
- Current state of employment
- Headwinds and tailwinds for state, county and city governments
- Thinking about a new model for work
- Thinking about diversification of income
- Public education as a quick case study
- How rural California is different than urban and suburban in terms of the public sector
- Career tracks that may be forming in the public sector (public health, e.g.)
- How do changes in the forecasts affect the public sector to 2025?

Special Thanks to the North Far North Regional Consortium for Sponsoring the IPPS March Meeting.

Dr. Robert Eyler, Economist

Please join us!

March 18, 2021
2 pm to 4 pm

CLICK TO JOIN ZOOM MEETING

For more information email:
terri.carpenter@seta.net

